

Bible Hebrew Alphabet Meaning

The reason behind the shapes

The Hebrew Bible Alphabet is Divided into 5 parts

Tongue Letters -	ד(D), ט(T), ל(L), נ(N), ת(T)
Lips Letters -	ב(B), ו(V), מ(M), פ(P)
Teeth Letters -	ז(Z), ס(S), צ(TZ), ר(R), ש(SH)
Palate Letters -	ג(G), י(Y), כ(C\K), ק(K)
Throat Letters -	ה(H), א(A), ח(~H), ע(~A)

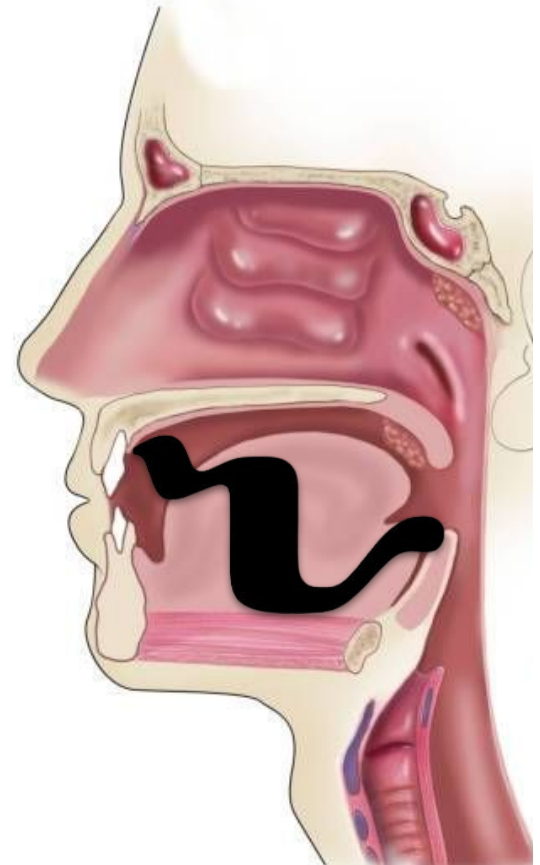

The Letter's shape is showing how to speak it

Tongue Letter Example

The Letter (L)ل is a Tongue letter
So it is an image of the tongue's position
In order to express the sound of “L”

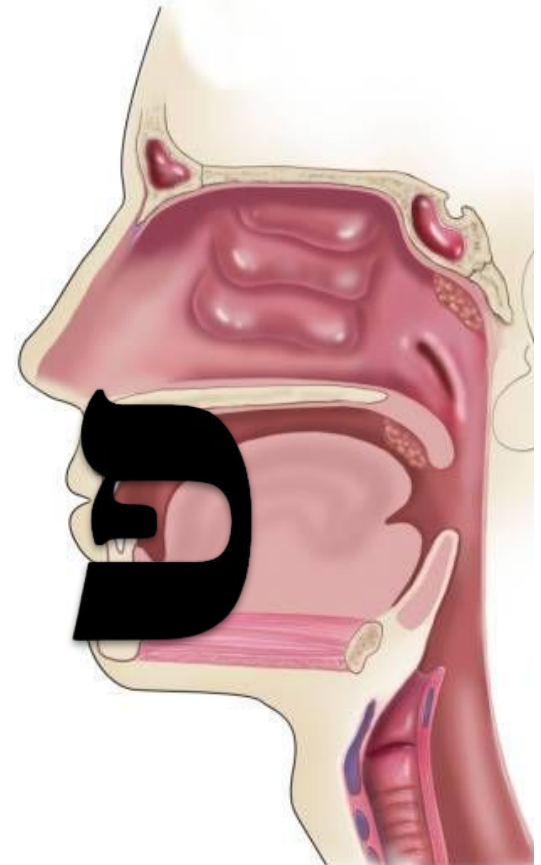

The tip of the tongue should touch the Palate

Lips Letter Example

The Letter (P)ᵑ is a Lips letter
So it is an image of the lip's position
In order to express the sound of “P”

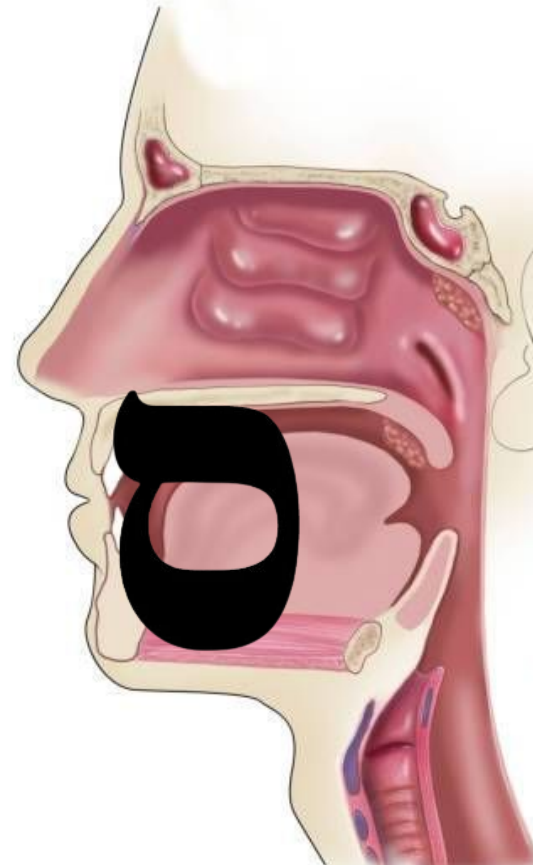

The lips should be folded, and then released

Teeth Letter Example

The Letter (S)o is a Teeth letter
So it is an image of the Teeth's position
In order to express the sound of "S"

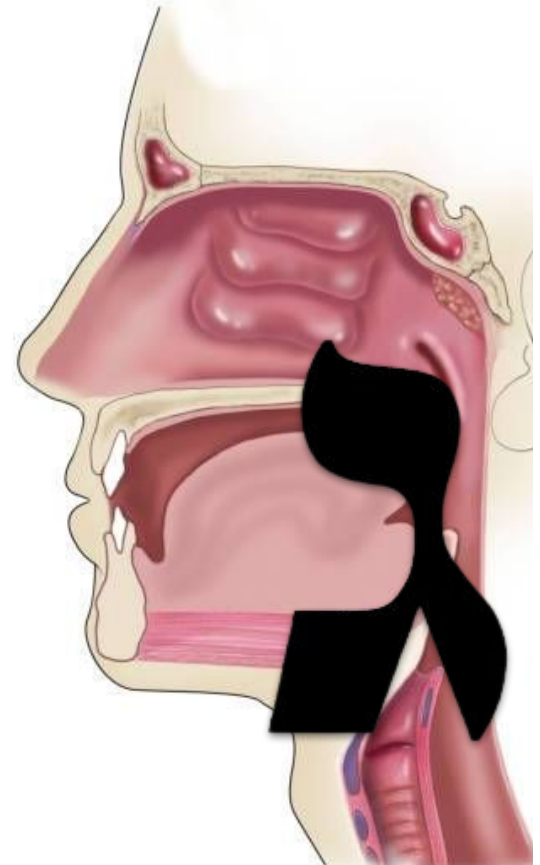

The teeth should be closed, so air can escape between the teeth

Palate Letter Example

The Letter (G) is a Palate letter
So it is an image of the Palate's position
In order to express the sound of "G"

Knock the Palate at the back of your mouth

Throat Letter Example

The Letter (H)ᠬ is a Throat letter
So it is an image of the Throat's position
In order to express the sound of “H”

Keep the throat and mouth open

